The Republican National Convention. The gentlemen having in charge the arrangements for securing for Omaha the next national republican convention are greatly clated over the encouragement they are getting on all sides, and at the meeting to be held at the Millard to morrow evening the committee on subscriptions for defraying the expenses that will naturally occur in an impertant undertaking like this expect to show some very satisfactory figures. They have over $30,000 in subscriptions already, and at that are only half through with their labors. There was to have been a meeting last night but owing to the inability of Church Howe, Esq., to reach the city a postponement was ordered until Friday night when that continuous the contract of the city and the city greatleman will be in attendance. The secretary, Mr. Wheeler, produced a letter received from B. F. Jones, Esq., chairman of the republican national committee, honoring the receipt of one of the circulars sent out from Omaha a few weeks ago. Mr. Jones also added that it will afford him much pleasure to meet the gentlemen who will be sent as a committee from Omaha to Washington to consuit with members of the committee December 15.

AMUSEMENTS.

A Magnificent Bendition of "Il Trovatore" By the Abbott Company. If the rendition of "Martha" by Emma Abbott and her admirable company was a success, the performance of Verdi's beautiful opera, "Il Trovatore" was a veritable triumph. The splendid audience was not only charmed but sympathetic. There was, of course, no end of encores and recalls. All felt that thenceforth Abbott's Leonora would be the pleasantest of memories, and that for Omaha her name, like those of Pasta and Persiani, of Grisi and Malibrau, for New York and the older eastern cities, would live Annandale, too, was never heard here at greater advantage. Her full, rich contraits that sufficient carrying power to penetrate to every part of the house, and truly, to the heights and depths of passion, tenderness and self-abandonment proper to the difficult role of Azucena, she seemed inherently at home. Her acting, too, was strong and realistic. Helene Bertram, as Inez, did what little she had to do, well. Signor A. Monte-griffo, the new tenor, was courteously received, and sang with remarkable impres-siveness. He was ever efficient, watchful, thoroughly artistic and added linely to the effect of every scene in which he appeared. Count di Luna, by the popular Pruette, was capitally impersonated. The baritone was in better tone than upon either of the previous evenings, and was the recipient of the most lavish applause. In addition to his superb voice he is very handsome, which goes a long ways in influencing popular favor. The chorus was massive, harmonious, magnificent and not by any means an inconsequential feature of this intrancing performance. But to revert to Abbott. She roused herself grandly to make her Lenora worthy of any of those who have gone before her, and she successed beyond description. From the nosucceeded beyond description. From the up-scaring of the opening scene to the larger inspiration of the composer's writing in the third and fourth acts, and throughout the thrilling, impassioned storms of the latter part of the opera, her work was incompara-ble, and the audience attested their fullest approval by loud, long and tumultous ap-

Editor of the Omaha World. - Dear Sir: Permit me to thank you for the complimentary notice which you so kindly bestowed on the rendition of the role of "Queen of Spain" on Monday evening in the opera of "Ruy Blas," by my French dresses. The pleasure which the costumes gave you on that occasion I am confident will be greatly intensified by the performance of my dresses in the cast of "Trovatore" to-night.

Ives-Megeath.

Dr. Frank Joseph Ives, assistant surgeon of the army at Fort D. A. Russell, was married on Monday afternoon to Miss Mildred Elizabeth Megeath, the ceremony taking place at 600 South Twenty-eighth street, in the presence of a number of friends of the bontracting parties. Among the latter were Colonel Hall and wife, Mrs. Colonel Henry, Captain Dempsey; Licutenant Kennon and wife, Licutenant Greene and a number of Captain Dempsey; Licutenant Kennon and wife, Lieutenant Greene and a number of others. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. Boyle, of St. Peter's church, on Leavenworth street near Sheridan avenue. The groom was attended by Captain Foote and the bride by Carrie Ijams and Miss Jennie Megeath. The parlors were beautifully decorated with flowers and the presents were numerous and expensive, mainly of silver. The bridal party left last evening on a visit to Dr. Ives' parents in New York and will return to Fort Russell by the 10th of hext month. Among the guests was the hext month. Among the guests was the brother of the groom, Eugene ives, state senator of New York, who will leave for the

E EXPECTED

Our big special sale of overcoats would cause a commotion, but we must confess we never an ticipated such a rush as we had all last week, and especially Saturday. Our 35 salesmen were busy from morning till late at night, to wait on the throngs of customers that crowded our store, and we regret that we were not better prepared, as even that large force of salesmen was not sufficient to attend to all, and a good many had to go away. Saturday's business made higher the same are not through the same are all through thr made big holes in our overcoat piles, but we are not through yet. Over one hundred cases of suits and overcoats from our great New York purchase, are still on the way and coming in daily, and we propose to get rid of them as fast as they come in.

Last week we have convinced thousands of customers that they never bought overcoats so cheap as we offered them. This week we will show how low good suits can be sold. Suits that were made by one of the best houses in the country. This is the greatest opportunity men of moderate means ever had to procure good first class garments at about one half the real value. We cannot describe them all, but we mention a few of the larger lots and which are especially big bargains:

$4.75 300 good heavy Cassimere Suits, warranted strictly all wool, lined with good heavy serge. No all wool suit of such quality and such make was ever offered for less than $7 to *8. Our slaughter price is $4.75.

$6.50 This is the price we have placed on about 200 fine black, warranted real worsted, Corkscrew Suits, some lined with silk serge, some with good double warp Italian, well gotten up. This will make a good dress suit for men of mod erate means, and will give good satisfaction. It is in every respect as good a suit as is sold by other houses for $10 to $12. Our slaughter price is $6.50.

39.75 This lot contains about 250 plain, double and twist, and silk mixed cassimeres, some fine cheviots, elegantly made and trimmed, every one worth $15.00, and that is the price which other dealers would ask for them. Our slaughter price is $9.75.

$13.50 Nearly 400 fine tailor made Suits, the choicest of the great purchase; cassimeres, beautiful fancy worsteds and diagonals. The material is the product of some of the best mills in the country, and some imported. These suits were manufactured for the finest city trade, and have been made up to sell at retail for from $18 to $25. Our

Several large lots of Pea Jackets and Vests, chinchillas, plush and astrachan, lined with fine cassimere and Italian goods, which are usually sold for $10, $12 and $18. Our slaughter price is $4.25, $4.75, $9.00 and $1175. A few extra fine imported astrachans with elegant satin lining, and fully worth $28 to $30, we offer at $16.90.

We wish to call the attention of ladies to a small but especially attractive assortment of fine children's overcoats, which fell into our hands with this great purchase. These are made of the best of material in Cassimere, Chinchilla and Astrachan, elegantly trimmed with fur and plush, and of exquisite designs. These garments were manufactured for the cream of city trade, and in every respect first class. There are only a few small lots of them, and as the sizes are somewhat broken we have marked them at about one third their real value,

We are daily in receipt of numerous mail orders from out of town parties, and wish to say that we cheerfully send goods by express C. O.
